

SERIES TIED BY DETROIT

Pittsburg Couldn't Hit Mullins Pitching

WHILE LIEFIELD WAS EASY

Tigers Shut Out the Pirates by the Score of 5 to 0 Before a Large Crowd at Detroit Yesterday.

Detroit, Oct. 13.—By Detroit's decisive win—5 to 0—over Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon, the world's championship series is now tied at two games each. The victory of the American leaguers was made possible largely through the splendid pitching of George Mullin, who allowed but five hits and struck out nine men, including Clarke twice and Wagner once. Pittsburgh played a ragged game in the field, Abstein on first base being the chief offender, while Phillips, who replaced Liefield in the box in the fifth inning, also played poorly.

Only once did Pittsburgh get a man around to third base. That came in the third inning when Myre doubled and Leach drew a pass, followed by their double steal just as Clarke struck out. From that time to the ninth inning the visitors were held on first base, Miller getting to second in the closing inning, having made a scratch hit and being sent to second on Abstein's out. Wilson was third out to T. Jones, unassisted.

Detroit delighted the 17,000 fans by beginning to score in the second inning. Liefield started his own undoing by hitting Deleahanty and then Moriarty sent up a high fly which passed for a single, Deleahanty going to third. On T. Jones' grounder to Liefield, Deleahanty was run down between third and home, the other runners advancing meanwhile. Stange placed a single just beyond Miller's reach, and both Moriarty and T. Jones tallied. Mullin forced Stange and he himself went to second when Miller threw poorly to first in trying to complete a double play. Liefield threw out D. Jones.

The third was a Waterloo for Liefield. T. Jones started it with a safe hit, but was forced by Stange and the latter was himself doubled at first by Wagner. Liefield then passed Mullin, with D. Jones following with a single which sent Mullin to second. Bush hit into the left field crowd for two bases, sending Mullin across the pan and D. Jones to third. Cobb followed suit with a double, scoring D. Jones and Bush, the latter from second base. Crawford went out weakly, Liefield to Abstein.

Phillips pitched the remainder of the game and did masterly work, but with Mullin holding the Pittsburgh sluggers at his mercy there was no hope of saving the game for Pittsburgh.

ANOTHER FOR RED SOX

Boston Americans Defeated New York Nationals, 5 to 4.

Boston, Oct. 13.—The Red Sox got an other game from the Giants here yesterday, although the latter made a game rally in the last inning, scoring three runs and almost tying the score. Ames was taken from the box in the sixth inning, after the red legged gentlemen had made four runs off him, and Crandall allowed one more tally in the last session, winning the game for the locals. Hall pitched the entire game for the Red Sox and held the Giants to seven hits. The score:

WAS GOING TO DIE.

Young Woman Saved From Committing Suicide.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 13.—At the conclusion of a sermon preached in the Baptist church in Little Falls Sunday night by the pastor, the Rev. Henry G. Cooper, on the subject, "Which, Business or Bottles, Home or Hell?" a young woman stepped up to the minister, handed him a note and quickly left the edifice. This is what the clergyman read in the note:

"I thank you for your sermon, I do not know what ever made me go into your church, as I am the proprietor of a resort in Detroit, Mich. After hearing you, I cannot go back again. I do not know what will become of me, but I cannot go back. Oh please save the young girl from such a life, as it really is only death in the end. I shall end my life to-day, as I have nothing to live for now, and I have gone too far ever to be saved. Yes, my sins are as scarlet, but I don't wish other young girls to have to go through what I have. I have a lovely Christian mother in Brattleboro, Vt. Mr. Gow is her pastor. I have not seen her for over five years. She thinks me dead, and it is better so. Warn others for my sake."

The minister promptly notified the police and after an all night search the young woman was found roaming the streets of the city. On Monday she was turned over to a Christian family and later she will be sent to her mother's home in Brattleboro, Vt. She gives the name of Mrs. Florence Hunter and says she left Detroit a few days ago for the express purpose of killing herself when she reached the East. She is well supplied with money.

$1,000,000 FOR PEACE.

Great Business Organization Planned to Suppress War.

Boston, Oct. 13.—To promote the cause of universal peace Edwin Ginn, the Boston publisher, has set aside $1,000,000. For the rest of his life Mr. Ginn will contribute $50,000 annually to the peace cause, and upon his death the $1,000,000 will become available. By the time of his death the $1,000,000 will have been considerably increased. It is practically the first business step in this cause, and interested in it with Mr. Ginn are a number of prominent men. Mr. Ginn has worked independently of the professional peace advocates and has not associated his project with that of the platform peace workers. He has interested Andrew Carnegie in his plan and says that undoubtedly he will give a handsome sum to the project. "My aim is to unite the business men of the world in a great permanent association which shall have for its object the suppression of war," he said yesterday. "Until now men have been organized to kill one another, and this organization shall aim to keep them from this wholesale killing."

A LESSON IN LOVE.

Girl Wife Ran Away to Teach Husband Affection.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Fleeing from her 40-year-old husband to teach him a lesson in affection, Mrs. Emma Redeniece, a 15-year-old girl wife of Bengal, Ind., ran into the arms of her relatives and is awaiting the arrival of her husband, who have been notified. The dilapidated condition of the young woman's shoes and her hatless head attracted the attention of Patrolman Schaffer, who drew from her the story of an unhappy marriage, which had resulted in her flight. The young woman told the police that her husband was negligent of her little attentions to him and that she had run away from him to teach him her value by the temporary loss.

SENTENCED FOR FORGERY.

Harry J. Smith Given Light Sentence Because of Youth.

Burlington, Oct. 13.—Harry J. Smith, the ex-soldier of the 15th cavalry, who was charged with forging a check for $20.00 in the name of Second Lieut. W. G. Wyman of the 11th cavalry, the indictment being brought against him by the grand jury of the present term of court, was taken into county court yesterday afternoon, when Judge Miles sentenced him to serve not more than three or less than two and one half years at the State's prison at Windsor. The court stated that sentence would be made as light as possible because of the youth of the respondent, who is only 20 years of age, with the view that he might sometime become a useful member of society.

OCEAN LINER AGROUND.

Morgan Steamer Antilles, Bound from New Orleans to New York.

New York, Oct. 13.—A wireless message transmitted from a government station on the Florida coast to this city last evening said that the Morgan liner Antilles, which sailed from New Orleans Saturday for New York, with several hundred passengers and a cargo of general merchandise, had reported herself aground and that she wanted immediate assistance. She also asked for a steamship to take off her passengers. The position given by the Antilles is just east of the straits of Florida and in the neighborhood of several treacherous Bahama keys, including the Bemini group.

COUNTRESS HAS MILL.

Former Miss Vanderbilt Shocks Hungarian Aristocracy.

Budapest, Oct. 13.—High aristocracy is perturbed over the act of Countess Seckelmyer, formerly Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, who recently purchased a large sawmill at Remets Vasgyar. Connected with the mill there is an extensive manufacturing plant which turns out all kinds of cabinet work. The Hungarian women of high rank admire the fair American's enterprise and envy her business ability, but hint that it is startling departure on the part of one of Hungary's noblest families. They also show that the business move of the Countess is to be deprecated because it is beneath the dignity of her station in life.

CRANE HAS RESIGNED

Minister to China Has Been Indiscreet

HAD TALKED TOO MUCH

Sends Resignation to President Taft Before Secretary of State Knox Requests It—Incident Closed.

Washington, Oct. 13.—A practical ending of the incident involving allegations of indiscreet conduct against Charles R. Crane of Chicago, who was recently appointed American minister to China, came yesterday, when Secretary of State Knox virtually forced Crane out of the diplomatic service. Knox asked Crane to tender his resignation but the latter declined to hand it to Knox and instead notified President Taft by telegram that it was at his disposal. Realizing how the hand lay, Crane sent his telegram to President Taft before he received the note from Knox saying that Crane's resignation would be accepted.

While technically Crane is still the American minister to China, President Taft's acceptance of his resignation probably will be at hand to-day.

In a statement given to the press, issued by Knox, it was indicated that the sole cause for desiring to revoke Crane's commission was that the latter had been guilty of furnishing certain information to a Chicago newspaper in regard to the proposed attitude of the American government in its diplomatic dealings with China. According to Knox's announcement, Crane admitted the responsibility for this newspaper article, which Knox incidentally declared to be a canard.

Crane came back at Knox in a long statement issued last night. In it he denies that he "gave out a newspaper story," as Knox had said, and also President Taft as having given him authority to speak freely of the relations between China and the United States. Crane quoted the president as saying with reference to the invitations received by Crane to attend public affairs in his honor: "Do not miss any of them, and when you go to me, insist on speaking and let them have it red hot."

GAYNOR IGNORES IVINS.

The Candidate Refuses to Reply to the Statements.

New York, Oct. 13.—Judge William J. Gaynor, the Democratic nominee for mayor of Greater New York, who is supported by Tammany Hall, made a heated statement yesterday when asked for a reply as to the charges against him uttered by W. M. Ivins in a speech Monday night in which Mr. Ivins accused Judge Gaynor of evading his duties as a senator. Judge Gaynor yesterday Senator Patrick McCarron, Eugene Wood and Rudolph Block at the Hoffman house immediately after the passage of the anti-race track gambling law.

Eugene Wood is a well known figure at the state capital, and Mr. Block is one of the employees of W. R. Hearst. "I will not contradict any lie of that man," said Judge Gaynor yesterday when questioned about Mr. Ivins' charges. "I do not need to. He is the elegant gentleman who called me a paranoiac the other day. Do not ask me to contradict any lie, no matter what he says. I leave such things to my neighbors and those who know me and what I have been and tried to do all my life."

State Senator McCarron, who opposed the anti-betting race bills, said yesterday there was no such gathering as Mr. Ivins alleged and that he never discussed the constitutionality of the gambling law or any other bill with Judge Gaynor.

NEW HEAD FOR GRAND TRUNK.

Sir Charles Rivers Wilson to Retire and C. M. Hays to Be President.

London, Oct. 13.—It was announced yesterday that at the end of the present year Sir Charles Rivers Wilson will retire from the presidency of the Grand Trunk railroad of Canada, which office he has occupied for fifteen years. C. M. Hays, the general manager in Canada, will succeed to the title of president, which will give him the same rank as is accorded to the chief executive of other American and Canadian lines. The board of directors, however, will continue to be the same, the control and administration of the company will be as heretofore and new offices of chairman and vice-chairman to be created will be held by directors other than the president. Vice-President A. W. Smithers will be the first chairman of the board.

SPITTING NUISANCE

Hawking and Spitting Is Caused by Catarrh Gernis.

If the local authorities want to stop the disgusting habit of spitting mucus on the sidewalks, they had better instruct the people as to the best method of killing the catarrh germs and curing catarrh.

You can easily tell by reading the symptoms below whether you have catarrh or not:

Offensive breath, frequent sneezing, discharge from nose, stoppage of the nose, huskiness of the voice, itching in throat, drooping in throat, a cough, pain in chest, loss of strength, variable appetite, spasms of coughing, loss of sleep, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, loss of vital force.

The Red Cross Pharmacy has a sensible remedy (mucus back if it fails) for catarrh, called Hyomei, which is a very mild and safe remedy. It is a cough, pain in chest, loss of strength, variable appetite, spasms of coughing, loss of sleep, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, loss of vital force.

GAS, INDIGESTION AND HEARTBURN GO

Out of Order Stomachs Feel Fine Five Minutes After Taking a Little Diapnein, Which Is Absolutely Harmless.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapnein.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach?

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapnein occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heart burn, sour risings, gas on stomach, or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach, and besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from sour out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after taking a little Diapnein.

Go to your drugist and get a 50-cent case of Diapnein now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

GOOD PROGRESS ON CANAL.

Total Excavation in September 2,536,383 Yards.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The dirt is flying at Panama. An official of the isthmian canal commission, after he had read a cable dispatch from the chief engineer on the isthmus giving the amount of excavation on the canal for September. The total excavation for the month was 2,536,383 cubic yards, place measurement, against 2,555,178 cubic yards in the previous month. There were twenty-five working days in September, against twenty-six in the previous month, while the rainfall for September was 10.07 inches, against 9.28 inches in August. The average daily output in September was 113,455 cubic yards, against 105,909 cubic yards in August. The amount of concrete laid in the month was 21,497 cubic yards, against 7,943 cubic yards in the previous month, and 451,753 cubic yards of fill were placed in dams in September, against 454,977 cubic yards in August.

GREAT NAVAL ACTIVITY.

Many American Warships Are Under Construction.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Secretary Meyer has signed the contract with the New York Shipbuilding company for the construction of the Dreadnaught battleship Arkansas. As heretofore announced, the William Crump & Sons company are to build the other Dreadnaught, the Wyoming, authorized by the last Congress. With these two monster war vessels on the ways, the navy department will have under construction seven battleships in all, the Arkansas, Wyoming, South Carolina, Delaware, North Dakota, Florida and Utah. In addition there are under way several colliers, twenty torpedo boat destroyers and sixteen submarines.

CANDIDATES PUT OUT FIRE.

Vahcy and Murray Went Promptly to the Rescue.

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 13.—While speeding back to Boston in an automobile late Monday night, after the Democratic rally here, James H. Vahcy, candidate for governor, and Councilman William Murray of Boston noticed smoke coming from the window of a house at the corner of Gorham and Winter streets.

They stopped the car and ran up to the third floor of the house, where in the door of a room and found that an overturned lamp had set fire to the furnishings and had already reached the mattress of a bed on which a man was lying apparently unconscious.

They hauled the mattress from under the man's body and threw it out of the window and then succeeded in putting out the flames. The occupants of the house were Poles, but did their best to express their thanks.

PASSED BAD NIGHT.

Charles W. Morse Not Comfortable in the Tombs.

New York, Oct. 13.—Charles W. Morse, the banker, passed a bad night in the Tombs, where he was confined Monday after the United States circuit court of appeals sustained the action of the lower court in sentencing him to 15 years imprisonment for misapplying the funds of a national bank.

Yesterday he complained of a pain in his side. The jail physician did what he could to relieve him and gave him a sleeping potion. Later, Mrs. Morse called, but was told that her husband had fallen asleep and could not be disturbed.

TAFT MOVES EASTWARD

Visits Many Towns in Southern California

SPEECH TO THE SOLDIERS

Gillett and Flint in the President's Party—Train Goes Through Great Lemon and Orange Groves.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 13.—President Taft, yesterday began the second day of his experience at the guest of Los Angeles and adjoining cities in southern California. After a night of rest at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. A. Edwards, following the banquet in his honor Monday night, the president arose early and was met by a local committee and taken by trolley car to the National Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle, ten miles from Los Angeles. Thousands of the old veterans cheered the chief executive. The president's speech, delivered from the steps of one of the buildings, was filled with patriotic sentiment. On leaving the stand the president grasped the outstretched hands of many of the veterans.

When the car reached Los Angeles on the regular journey it was met by automobiles into which the party was loaded and the trip to Pasadena begun. There the entertainment was under the auspices of the local board of trade, and included a luncheon at the Hotel Maryland. At Pasadena Mayor Early, with an accompanying committee, met the presidential party. The president's train had been brought from Los Angeles and was awaiting him at the station. Governor Gillett, United States Senator Flint, and other notables accompanied the party on its second day's trip. At the luncheon President Taft spoke briefly. As soon as the luncheon had been concluded the president was escorted to his train.

From here President Taft began his eastward journey, passing out into the great orange and lemon groves of Riverside and San Bernardino counties. Brief stops were made in Monrovia, Palm Drive, Clermont, Uplands and San Bernardino. When Redlands was reached the party drove over the noted Smiley heights.

Leaving Redlands the party passed through Coletto to Riverside, and arrived at the Glenwood hotel shortly after four o'clock. There the party spent the remainder of the day and participated in a banquet given by the Riverside chamber of commerce. The president is scheduled to resume his journey eastward from here shortly after nine o'clock and to-day will be in Arizona and on his way through the principal cities of the territory to the Grand Canyon. Arriving at the Grand Canyon, the president will spend a day in much similar enjoyment to that he had at Yosemite.

TIERED OF BEING SHADOWED.

And So Brother of Colquhoun Remained in Police Station.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 13.—"Lock me up; I don't want to be shadowed all day," said a clean looking, well dressed laboring man, who walked into Los Angeles police headquarters alone Monday.

"What do you want to be locked up for?" asked the captain in charge. The man hesitated, glanced about to see he was not overheard, and said, "My name is Colquhoun."

It was the police captain's turn to hesitate, but he caught himself quickly. "Well, go over there and sit down," he said. And so it happened that the brother of the man who died for having robbed the nation of one of its presidents voluntarily sat in a police station while President Taft was driven through the streets.

MANY RAILROAD CASES.

Important Litigation Before the Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The call of the docket in the supreme court of the United States was begun yesterday and railroad litigation claimed practically exclusive attention. The first case argued was that of the interstate commerce commission versus the Chicago & Great Western and other railroads entering Chicago, in which involved the right of the commission under the Hepburn law to fix terminal charges. The next case on the docket was similar, being that of the Southern Pacific company versus the interstate commerce commission, in which the commission's act in reducing the company's freight charges on lumber shipments from Oregon to California is called into question. The government was represented in both cases by White Ellis, assistant to the attorney general.

A petition for a writ of certiorari was presented in the case of the Bell Railway company of Chicago, raising the question of the applicability of the safety appliance law to purely local roads. There also was a motion to advance the hearing of the case of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad company versus Mortley, involving the question whether the Hepburn law has the effect of annulling contracts for free transportation made in advance of the enactment of the law.

Justice McKenna and Moody were again absent when the court convened yesterday, but business proceeded as if the entire membership of the court had been in attendance.

Mrs. Cleveland in Lausanne.

Lausanne, Switzerland, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland, accompanied by her children, arrived here yesterday. It is understood that the children will be placed in a school here and that Mrs. Cleveland will take up her residence nearby for an indefinite period.

Bryan at Seattle Fair.

Seattle, Oct. 13.—W. J. Bryan arrived from Portland yesterday and was met at the train by a committee of leading Democrats. He visited the fair during the day and delivered a lecture there.

NO ONE TO LOVE.

By FLORENCE ETHEL CROSSBY.

Copyright, 1935, by American Press Association.

We never know when we are on the brink of a change for better or for worse. At forty I was tired of life. I had built up a good practice in my profession, the law, and the novelty had worn off legal questions. I loved no one, and no one loved me. I was a member of several clubs, but they had grown to be very dull places to me. As for society, the old were too old and the young too young for me. In short, I had exhausted the pleasures of youth and had laid no foundation for those of age.

One night I was traveling on a sleeper. Lying in my berth, I mused: Tomorrow morning I shall arrive, go to my rooms, bathe and then to the club for breakfast. At 10 I shall reach the office, to be pestered all day by clients who are dissatisfied with the law's delay or the injustice of justice; on the way to my rooms stop at the club for the regular 5 o'clock cocktail; at 7 hunt for some one with whom to get through a dinner; evening forced in order to pass the time to make a perfunctory call; at 11 bring up at my desolate quarters. And this will be my program day in and day out. Oh, for a new sensation!

"Here, darling, drink this." The new sensation had come the moment I asked for it. The voice was a woman's, soft and sweet. In the dim light I saw something extended to me. It was a cup. I took it, and in doing so my fingers grazed a soft hand. There was a spasmodic effort on the part of the giver to withdraw the cup, but I had got my grasp on it and refused to part with it. When I had quaffed the contents I extended it, but there was no hand to take it. I put it under my pillow and went to sleep to the sound of an angel's voice saying:

"Here, darling, drink this."

In the morning I washed out the cup. It was of silver, and on it were the letters "Bennie." After dressing I looked about me for its owner and was not long in finding both Bennie and her mother. They occupied the next section to mine. The mother's features were as refined as her voice. She was about thirty and dressed in half mourning.

Heaven forgive me for hoping that her boy was fatherless! I tried to catch her eye, but never did a woman before absolutely ignore me. She appeared to be absorbed in her boy and had no eyes for any one else, certainly not for me. As we were entering the terminal station I stepped up to her, doffed my hat, extended the cup and said:

"Fardon me, madam. I think this must be yours."
